

More than 25% of our neighbors in the Richmond area live at or below the poverty level.

The cost of furnishings can cripple a family on the brink of homelessness and or entering a new home after a crisis.

How it Works

-  Individuals, organizations and companies donate gently used furniture and housewares.
-  CARITAS employees and volunteers pick up, collect, sort, load, and deliver furniture, learning important job skills along the way.
-  More than 100 local nonprofit and social service agencies screen and refer families and individuals in need of basic household items.
-  Clients leave with your donated goods, providing their own vehicle or paying a small fee for in-home or curbside delivery.
